

briefings

Cockpit rebuilder Cees Broere is close to completing a replica of a Handley Page Hampden cockpit for the Dutch Aircraft Recovery Group museum. Constructed with the help of original drawings, the finished model will accompany his existing HP Halifax cockpit, which has been built at full scale incorporating some original parts. ROGER SOUPART